

02-6:Notice of Proposed Rule Making. I think that alternative methods for calculating Poverty besides the Lunch Program should include census data for more accurate poverty rates for school districts with open high school campuses. Lunch Program data underestimates poverty in poor urban areas with open campuses because many students work or do not participate in Lunch.